Quality Improvement and Accreditation Officer Grade VI Permanent Position

Applications are invited for the above post from suitably qualified persons.

The Quality Improvement and accreditation officer will be responsible for leading and managing accreditation and quality improvement processes within the NRH. The primary function of this role is to actively promote a culture of continuous quality improvement with a focus on the external accreditation programme. This will include working in partnership with all staff to promote and foster optimum participation of the Hospital with accreditation schemes, and for continuous development of a quality culture, which maintains the primacy of the patient as the centre and a focus on quality improvement.

It is essential that candidates at the latest date for receiving completed application forms for the post, possess:

- A relevant third level or healthcare professional qualification
- At least three years relevant experience in a senior post in quality improvement / risk management / healthcare audit or an accreditation process, ideally in a healthcare environment
- Significant leadership, interpersonal and organisational skills
- Ability to utilise analytics in quality monitoring and reporting
- Excellent communication and negotiating skills
- A master's degree or post graduate qualification in a quality related discipline is desirable.

Informal enquiries and job descriptions are available on request from Ms. Elayne Taylor, Quality and Risk Manager via email at elayne.taylor@nrh.ie

Applicants for all the above posts should submit a letter of application and Curriculum Vitae together with names and addresses of three referees to arrive not later than 12.00pm on 15th February 2022 to Ms. Ishita Sanon, Human Resource Department or email ishita.sanon@nrh.ie. Job descriptions are available at www.nrh.ie/careers or on request from Ishita Sanon.

Applicants may be shortlisted and a panel may be formed from those interviewed for future permanent and temporary positions.
