

The NRH is pleased to offer the Bobath Training Course Introductory Modules in April, September and November 2024.

Module 1: Human Movement Analysis as a basis of clinical intervention – Friday 26th and Saturday 27th April

Module 2: The integration of postural control & selective movement for functional activities, Part A – Friday 27th and Saturday 28th September

Module 3: The integration of postural control & selective movement for functional activities, Part B – Friday 1st and Saturday 2nd November

Learning Objectives

- To discuss movement analysis based on The Bobath Concept
- To explore and enhance skills of observation, analysis and facilitation of normal movement
- To discuss the pathophysiology and consequences to the patient with established movement dysfunction
- To build upon participants ability to analyse posture and movement
- To link the evidence base and clinical practice

Details: The Modules will run on Fridays (2pm - 6.30pm) and Saturdays (9am - 5pm)
Please arrive to NRH Main Reception 20 minutes in advance of start time

Location: National Rehabilitation Hospital, A96 RPN4

Delegates: Must be qualified Physiotherapists and Occupational Therapists

Cost: €600 per delegate; includes tea, coffee, refreshments, free parking and course material. A certificate of attendance will be issued.

Booking: Booking form available here or by scanning QR code
Closing date for booking is Friday 12th April 2024 at 5pm.

Bookings will only be confirmed once payment is received.
Payment details are contained in the booking form.

Contact: academicdept@nrh.ie for booking information or kate.curtin@nrh.ie for course information.

Please note places are limited and will be allocated on a first come, first served basis, so early booking is advised in order to secure your place.