

Specialist Rehabilitation Services for Ireland: Connect – Reflect – Impact

Programme at a Glance

Connect Plenary 1: Getting Rehabilitation Right	Reflect Plenary 2: Rehabilitation Networks and Integrated Care	Impact Plenary 3: Supporting People with Rehabilitation Needs to Community Reintegration
Setting the Scene: World Health Organization – Rehabilitation 2030. An initiative by the WHO calling for coordinated global action to strengthen rehabilitation in health systems. - Update by WHO representative	A Personal Experience: When rehabilitation falls short of expectations Too long in hospital; reflecting on the personal cost of disconnected care	A Personal Experience: When reintegration works well – Steps to Success
The Irish Story so Far: Delivering and Developing Specialist Rehabilitation Services for the National Population - What has been achieved to date; what's working well, and 'where to from here' for neurorehabilitation and other specialist rehabilitation services in hospitals and in the community. - Update on progress of the Managed Clinical Rehabilitation Network - Clinical Networks in Rehabilitation – enablers for success, insights from a scoping review	Specialist Rehabilitation for Ireland – Reflecting on our vision for integrated services; - What should Integrated Care in Rehabilitation look and feel like? - Trauma Care and Essential Rehabilitation Pathways - Specialist Inpatient Rehabilitation Services	Community Reintegration: a Canadian Exemplar
A Personal Experience: A Successful Rehabilitation Journey Transitioning from Paediatric Rehabilitation Services to Adult Services and Beyond	Panel Discussion and Q&A: Networks and Integration - Putting the jigsaw together Discussing the urgent need to expand specialist rehabilitation infrastructure and resources at national, regional and community levels to improve integrated pathways and continuum of care for those with rehabilitation needs from post-acute through to community-based services	Panel Discussion and Q&A: Rehabilitation Closer to Home - The vital role of support services in successful community reintegration Representatives from a range of services providing support to people with acquired and congenital rehabilitation needs to reintegrate to education, employment, family and community life Refreshments
Panel Discussion and Q&A: Rehabilitation - the Big Picture; Global and National Contexts		The National Tertiary Centre for Complex Specialist Rehabilitation Services – looking to the future Sharing the highlights so far and looking to a future of collaboration, innovation and integration
Morning Refreshments & Poster Viewing	Lunch & Poster Viewing	Panel Discussion and Q&A: Blue Skies Thinking
 * An optional session is included in your registration fee. This will be held at the National Rehabilitation Hospital on Saturday morning (6th December) and will include a site visit and clinically relevant knowledge-to-practice presentations. Please indicate on the Registration Form if you are interested in attending this session.		4.15pm Poster awards and Closing remarks 4.20pm Close