Playgrounds

Cabinteely Park Playground

- This playground has an Ability Swing for young people who use a wheelchair.
- The Ability Swing is suitable for self-propelled and power wheelchairs up to 250kg and is located beside other swing sets and playground equipment.

Kilbogget Park Playground

- There is a We-GO-Swing which is suitable for all children, but designed specifically for children with a physical disability who use a wheelchair.
- The We-Go-Swing can be used by a number of children at a time, including children with their family, friends or parents.
- Kilbogget Park is also multi-access, has a fully accessible trail, little or no gradient, flat smooth surface and no steps.

South Beach Playground, Greystones

- This is an inclusive playground with an Ability Swing for young people who use a wheelchair.
- The ability swing in the South Beach Playground has a locked key box on the gate for which you need a code – this is available from the Greystones Municipal District (the building beside the playground) during the following times:

Monday - Thursday	9am to 1pm and 2pm to 5pm
Friday	9am to 4pm
